

AUTHORSHIP FORM: Authorship Responsibility, Copyright Transfer,* Institutional Review Board/Animal Care Committee Approval, Financial Disclosure, and Publication Charge Agreement for Manuscripts Submitted to Biology of Reproduction.

Manuscript Title:

Authors (list all authors in the order in which each is listed in the authorship):

Authorship Responsibility. The undersigned hereby affirm that this manuscript represents original, unpublished material that is not under editorial consideration elsewhere, in whole or in part, and that each author has participated sufficiently in the intellectual content, analysis of data (if applicable), and writing of the manuscript to take public responsibility for it. The undersigned also attest that those individuals or institutions in the Acknowledgments are aware that their names appear.

Copyright Transfer. The undersigned authors, jointly and severally, relinquish to the Society for the Study of Reproduction, Inc. (SSR), all control over this material such as rights to make or authorize reprints, to reproduce the materials in other association publications, and to grant the material to others with or without charge. The undersigned grant and assign exclusively to SSR for its use any and all rights of what-so-ever kind or nature now or hereafter protected by the copyright laws (common or statutory) in the United States and all foreign countries in all languages in and to the above-named article, including all subsidiary rights. The SSR, in turn, grants to each author the right of republication in any work of which she/he is the author or editor, subject only to giving proper credit to the original journal publication of the article. If the manuscript is not accepted for publication, this copyright transfer has no legal effect and will be returned on request. The Editorial Office retains an e-file copy of submissions for six months. Material prepared by employees of the federal government in the course of their official duties may not be copyrightable; SSR accepts signatures on the NIH Publishing Agreement & Manuscript Cover Sheet.* In accordance with the NIH-sponsored research deposit, SSR will cause to have transmitted electronically, on the authors' behalf, the final published, copyedited form of the paper to PubMed Central, shortly after it appears online and in print, and subsequently PubMed Central International. In accordance with the NIH's Public Access policy and the copyright and controlled access period of Biology of Reproduction, PubMed Central may release the paper for public access 12 months after the date that the publication appears online and in print form in Biology of Reproduction.

Institutional Review Board/Animal Care Committee Approval. The undersigned hereby affirm that the studies described herein were performed in accordance with Guide for the Care and Use of Agricultural Animals in Agricultural Research and Teaching, published by the Consortium for Developing a Guide for the Care and Use of Agricultural Animals in Agricultural Research and Teaching, First Edition, 1988; the National Research Council (NRC) publication Guide for Care and Use of Laboratory Animals (copyright 1996, National Academy of Science); or the International Guiding Principles for Biomedical Research Involving Animals; and that the protocol for any investigation involving humans or animals has been approved by the institution(s) where the research was performed, and that all experimentation has been conducted in conformity with ethical and humane principles of research.

Financial Disclosure. The undersigned authors individually certify that he/she has no commercial associations (e.g., consultancies, stock ownership, equity interests, patent-licensing arrangements, etc.) that might pose a conflict of interest in connection with the submitted manuscript, except as disclosed on a separate attachment, and that all funding sources supporting the work and all institutional or corporate affiliations are acknowledged.

Publication Charge Agreement. The undersigned agree to honor publication charges as outlined in the Instructions for Authors if the manuscript is published.

All authors must sign in the order in which each is listed in the authorship. Authors may submit copies of this document independently if they are located at different institutions, but authors signing independently must sign on the line that reflects their authorship placement.
